Please, read aloud and translate orally:

It is cold.

It is hot.
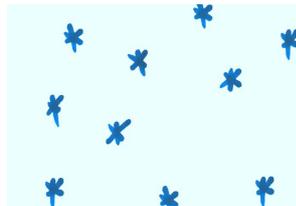

It is sunny.

It is cloudy.

It is wet.

It is windy.

It rains.

It snows.

Decide, how often such weather happens in different places. Make good sentences with the time adverbs ALWAYS, OFTEN, SELDOM, USUALLY, SOMETIMES, NEVER. Remember, that these adverbs like to be in the middle of a sentence, between the subject and the verb, but they can't get before 'to be'.
Read some examples:

It is usually sunny in India.

It never snows in Africa.

It is seldom cold in Egypt.

It is often windy in Russia in spring.

Venice

It is always wet in Venice.

deep under the sea

It is never windy deep under the sea.

Now make the sentences yourself:

Egypt

Great Britain

L.A.

deep under the sea

Antarctica

Venice

in spring

Antarctica

Russia in March

in winter Russia

Africa

Africa

Great Britain

India

Great Britain

Africa

deep under the sea

in spring
Germany

Antarctica

Brazil

Venice

in spring

Egypt

HOLLYWOOD

L.A.
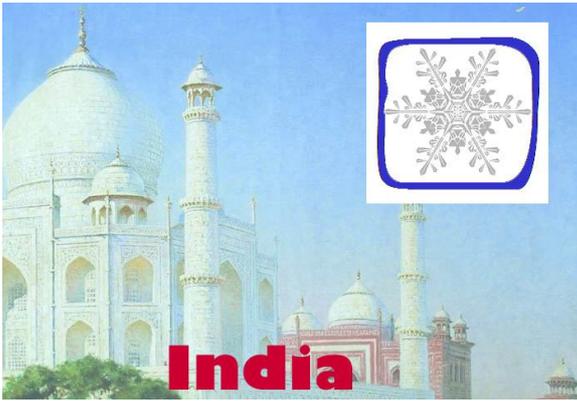

India

India

Great Britain

Russia
in summer

Russia
in April

deep under the sea

at night

Antarctica

L.A.

L.A.

in winter
Germany

Venice

Venice
in winter

Egypt

Great Britain

Great Britain

Brazil

Russia
in summer

deep under the sea

Antarctica

in winter
Russia

Russia
in spring

Brazil

India

You should say all these sentences less than in five minutes.